

Tests have shown the proposed use of power line to distribute broadband Internet capability will create serious interference to numerous radio services including public emergency, broadcast, military and well as amateur radio. Special interests should not take president over the public's well being. I ask that this proposal be discontinued.